

4.9.1 WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

PREAMBLE

The Association for Christian Education Mount Evelyn Inc. (The Association) is committed to fostering a culture of legal, ethical and moral behaviour and exemplary corporate governance. And it recognises the value of transparency and accountability in its administrative and management practices, and supports the reporting of improper conduct.

The Association recognises that we live in a fallen world; and that people make mistakes, or exercise wrong choices, which impact others, sometimes seriously. Our processes aim to assist management and the individuals to address and rectify issues; also, where possible, with the goal of humble restoration and support of the person who erred.

Brothers and sister, if someone is caught in a sin, you who live by the Spirit should restore that person gently. But watch yourselves, or you also may be tempted.

Galatians 6:1

RATIONALE

This Whistleblower Policy enables Workers to raise concerns regarding situations where they believe that the Association or anybody connected with the Association has acted in a way that constitutes serious wrongdoing, including unethical, illegal, corrupt or other inappropriate conduct, as set out below.

This Policy aims to:

- a) encourage a person to report improper conduct in good faith if they know or have reasonable grounds to suspect such conduct
- b) provide a mechanism to report misconduct or dishonest or illegal activity that has occurred or is suspected within the organisation
- c) enable the Association to deal with reports from whistleblowers in a way that will protect the identity of the whistleblower and provide for secure storage of the information
- d) ensure that any Reportable Conduct is identified and dealt with appropriately
- e) ensure that individuals who disclose wrongdoing can do so safely, securely and with confidence that they will be protected and supported, and
- f) help to ensure that the Association maintains the highest standards of ethical behaviour and integrity.

POLICY SUMMARY

The Association's whistleblower policy complies with 1317AI of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth).

A whistleblower is a person who, whether anonymously or not, attempts to report misconduct or dishonest or illegal activity that has occurred in connection with the Association, and wishes to avail themselves of protection against reprisal for having made the report.

The Association has engaged an independent whistleblower service via Christian Education National. Reports can be made to the online portal at www.whistleblowingservice.com.au/CEN.

IMPLEMENTATION

- 1.1 This policy applies to:
Employees, Directors, Officers, Volunteers, Contractors (including employees of contractors),
Suppliers, and Consultants

Within this policy all of these people are referred to by the term “Workers”.

- 1.2 Although they are under no obligation to do so, any associate, family member or dependant of any person in the above groups of people may also speak up. If they do choose to speak up in line with this Policy, we will extend to them the relevant rights and protections under this Policy.

2. PRINCIPLES

- 2.1 Higher standard – This Policy is designed to comply with the Association’s legal obligations. If anything in this Policy is inconsistent with any law imposed on the Association, that legal obligation or the “higher standard” will prevail over this Policy.
- 2.2 Speak up and report it! – We encourage Workers of the Association to report any concerns in line with our policies and procedures.
- 2.3 Our expectations of Workers – the Association expects Workers to act honestly and ethically, and to make any report on reasonable grounds.
- 2.4 Our responsibility to Whistleblowers – Our obligations to Workers are spelled out in this policy, but in particular in section 6 ‘Protection’.
- 2.5 Confidentiality and consent - the Association will maintain confidentiality of all reports and protect the identity of reporters to the fullest extent possible. While the Association encourages Whistleblowers to identify yourself to a Whistleblower Protection Officer, you may opt to report your concerns anonymously.

- To the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) or the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) or another Commonwealth regulatory body prescribed in legislation;
  - To a legal practitioner for the purposes of obtaining legal advice or legal representation about whistleblower protections; or
  - That qualifies as an emergency or public interest disclosure under the Corporations Act 2001(Cth). It is important that you understand the criteria for making a public interest or emergency disclosure and you may wish to consult an independent legal adviser before making a public interest or emergency disclosure.
- 3.5.3 While the Association encourages you to identify yourself to a Whistleblower Protection Officer, you may opt to report your concerns anonymously such as by adopting a pseudonym.

4. PROTECTION

4.1 How will I be protected if I speak up about Reportable Conduct?

- 4.1.1 If you have reasonable grounds to suspect Reportable Conduct, even if it turns out your concerns are mistaken, the Association will support and protect you and anyone else assisting in the investigation.

- 4.1.2 The Association will not tolerate any detriment inflicted on you because you or somebody else has made, or might make, a report of Reportable Conduct. Examples of a detriment include:

- 4.2.2 However, we encourage all individuals to disclose their identity when raising a concern. This will assist us to gather further information on your report. If you choose to disclose your identity, your details will be treated confidentially to the fullest extent possible in connection with the investigation. The Association will take measures to protect your identity such as by redacting your personal information, storing your information and disclosure securely, referring to you in a gender-neutral context and only allowing qualified staff to investigate your disclosures.
- 4.2.3 You may choose to report your concerns anonymously. However, if you choose to disclose your identity, your details will be treated confidentially to the fullest extent possible in connection with the investigation, and your identity will not be disclosed unless:

- b) the disclosure is made to ASIC, APRA or the Australian Federal Police (AFP);
- c) the disclosure is made to a Legal Practitioner for the purpose of obtaining advice;

- e) disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a threat to a person's health, safety or welfare.

4.2.4 We encourage all individuals to disclose their identity when raising a concern. This will assist us to gather further information on your report. All information relating to a report of Reportable Conduct will be stored securely and access will be limited to authorised staff.

4.2.5 It is illegal for a person to identify a discloser, or disclose information that is likely to lead to the identification of the discloser unless an exception above applies. If you feel that your confidentiality has been breached, you can lodge a complaint with a regulator, such as ASIC, APRA or the ATO, for investigation. The Association may also take disciplinary action against individuals that breach the confidentiality of a discloser, including summary dismissal.

4.3 False reports or disclosures

4.3.1 Protected Disclosures must be made on reasonable grounds. Anyone who knowingly makes a false report/disclosure of Reportable Conduct may be subject to disciplinary action, including dismissal.
